 - (d) annual accounts to 31 December each year are prepared and submitted to the Executive Committee by the date specified by the Committee
 - (e) Financial reports are provided to the Association and Executive Committee at regular meetings or as requested

25. DUTIES OF REGULAR MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 25.1 The Constitution also allows five (5) additional Regular Members to be appointed to the Executive Committee and accordingly termed an “Executive Committee Member.”
- 25.2 Such Executive Committee Members are elected in the same way as the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, and participate in all Executive Committee meetings with full voting privileges.

26. TERMS OF OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE MEMBERS

- 26.1 Each of the Executive Committee positions under Clauses 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 shall have a term of three (3) years, with a maximum serving period of one term per person, except as stated in Clause 26.3 below.
- 26.2 Each member of the Committee shall hold office for three (3) years, their term of office lasting until the conclusion of the Association’s annual general meeting conducted in the third calendar year following the year of their election.
- 26.3 For purpose of retaining consistency within the Executive Committee, after serving one term on that Committee, members of the Executive Committee, excluding the ex- officio member, are entitled to nominate for and be elected to a different position from that position held during their first term of appointment. No member of the Association is entitled to serve more than two (2) terms in total in any position on the Executive Committee.

27. CASUAL VACANCIES

- 27.1 A casual vacancy in the office of a member of the Executive Committee occurs if the member:
- (a) dies
 - (b) ceases to be a member of the Association
 - (c) resigns from office by notice in writing given to the Secretary
 - (d) is removed from office under Clauses 13 or 28
 - (e) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health
- 27.2 In the event of a casual vacancy, the Executive Committee shall appoint a replacement Executive Committee member, who will serve until the next Annual General Meeting election for members of the Committee.
- 27.3 Any such period so served shall not be considered a Term of Office as defined under Clause 26.

28. REMOVAL OF AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBER

If an Executive Committee member either:

- (a) acts in a manner prejudicial to the mission, objectives, values and best interests of the Association
- (b) is charged and subsequently convicted of a criminal offence within Papua New Guinea or Australia
- (c) does not fulfill the obligations of his or her Executive Committee position
- (d) is absent without prior consent of the Executive Committee from three (3) consecutive meetings

The Executive Committee can, by majority vote remove that person from their position, and discipline the member under the provisions of Clause 13.

29. SUB-COMMITTEES

- 29.1 The Executive Committee where required may establish sub-committees subject to Clause 29.2 to assist in achieving the objectives and purposes of the Association.
- 29.2 A sub-committee must be selected by the Executive Committee in their first meeting following the Annual General Meeting, from nominations received from regular members.
- 29.3 A sub-committee must comprise of a minimum of three (3) members.
- 29.4 Members of sub-committees are eligible for re-election for a maximum of two (2) terms to the same sub-committee.
- 29.5 A sub-committee may be disbanded by the Executive Committee upon general consensus of the members.

30. DELEGATION BY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO SUB-COMMITTEE

- 30.1 The Executive Committee may delegate its powers prescribed under Clause 20, by instrument in writing, to any of the sub-committees, other than this power of delegation.
- 30.2 A function delegated to a sub-committee under this Clause may be exercised from time to time by the sub-committee in accordance with the terms of the instrument.
- 30.3 The Executive Committee may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation made under this Rule.
- 30.4 A sub-committee may meet and adjourn as directed by the Executive Committee.
- 30.5 Sub-committees are required to report to the Executive Committee on their activities, within seven days after a meeting.

31. MEETINGS AND QUORUM

- 31.1 The Executive Committee shall meet at least four (4) times annually, at such place and time as the Committee may determine.
- 31.2 Additional meetings of the Executive Committee may be convened by the President or by a majority decision by member of the Executive Committee.
- 31.3 Any five (5) members of the Executive Committee, which may include either the President or the Vice President or both, constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the Committee. If both the President and the Vice President are not present at the appointed time, and a quorum is present, the Secretary or Treasurer may chair one meeting of the Executive Committee.
- 31.4 No business shall be transacted by the Executive Committee unless a quorum is present and if within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting stands adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week.
- 31.5 If at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour at the place appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.
- 31.6 Oral, written or electronic notice of a meeting shall be given by the Secretary to each member of the Executive Committee at least seven (7) days (or such period as may be unanimously agreed upon by members of the Committee) before the time appointed for the convening of the meeting.
- 31.7 Notice of a meeting given under Clause 31.6 shall specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and no other business shall be transacted at the meeting except business which the committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree to treat as urgent business.

32. MODE OF MEETING

The Executive Committee may meet in person or by telephone or other instantaneous means of conferring for the dispatch of business or by any combination of those means which allows each person present to hear and be heard by each other person present and to adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it determines.

33. VOTING IN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND SUB-COMMITTEES

- 33.1 Questions arising at a meeting of the Executive Committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the Committee shall be determined by a majority of the votes of members of the Committee or sub-committee present at the meeting, except the meeting chairperson. The form of voting shall be through a show of hands.
- 33.2 Each member present at a meeting of the Executive Committee or a sub-committee (excluding the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote but in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding (substantively the President of the Executive Committee or the Chair of a sub-committee) may exercise a casting vote.
- 33.3 Any statement or decision of the Executive Committee, authorised by the said Executive Committee or any sub-committee to be made public, shall only be made public by the President or the Secretary.

34. PROVINCIAL CHAPTERS

- 34.1 Provincial Chapters may be established to achieve the mission, objectives and purposes of the Association.
- 34.2 Provincial Chapters may be approved by the Executive Committee based on an application for consideration to form a Provincial Chapter.
- 34.3 To establish a Provincial Chapter:
- (a) there must be a minimum of twenty (20) members resident in the province and willing to belong and contribute to the Provincial chapter
 - (b) at least 60% of Provincial chapter members must be regular members
- 34.4 Provincial Chapters shall each have a Provincial Chapter Committee consisting of the following office bearers: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary and up to five (5) members. The duties of the chapter office bearers are the same as those outlined in Clauses 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 of the Constitution as applicable to Provincial chapter operation.
- 34.5 Provincial Chapter office bearers shall be elected in accordance with clause 19 and may hold terms of office in accordance with Clause 26 of the Constitution.
- 34.6 Notwithstanding Clause 34.5, an Associate member may be nominated by a regular member and approved by the Executive Committee to be a Provincial Chapter office bearer, where positions have not received nominations to be filled by regular members.

- 34.7 A Provincial Chapter shall conduct its operations in compliance and not inconsistent with the operations of the Executive Committee under this Constitution.
- 34.8 A Provincial Chapter may establish its own bank account for the only purposes of receiving funds from the Executive Committee and for its own fundraising to undertake activities or functions approved by the Executive Committee. Within twenty one (21) days of the approved activity an acquittal and completion report will be provided to the Executive Committee showing the use of funds.
- 34.9 A Provincial Chapter may be disbanded by the Executive Committee upon general consensus of the members where:
- (a) the Provincial Chapter has been proven to be ineffective for some time or
 - (b) the Provincial Chapter is not compliant with section 34 or the other provisions of this Constitution

PART IV: GENERAL MEETINGS

35. HOLDING OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- 35.1 With the exception of the first annual general meeting of the Association, the Association shall, at least once in each calendar year and within a period of six (6) months after the expiration of each financial year of the Association, convene an annual general meeting of its members.
- 35.2 The Association shall hold its first annual general meeting:
- (a) within the period of eighteen (18) months after its incorporation under the Associations Incorporation Act 1966 and
 - (b) within the period of six (6) months after the expiration of the first complete financial year of the Association

36. NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- 36.1 The Secretary shall, at least fourteen (14) days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting, cause to be sent by post or electronic mail to each member at the member's address appearing in the register of members, a notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.
- 36.2 No business other than that specified in the notice convening the annual general meeting shall be transacted at the meeting.

37. CALLING OF AND BUSINESS CONDUCTED AT AN ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 37.1 The annual general meeting of the Association shall, subject to this Constitution, be convened on such date and at such place and time as the Executive Committee deems fit.
- 37.2 In addition to any other business which may be transacted at an annual general meeting, the business of an annual general meeting shall be:
- (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since that meeting

- 50.3 For purposes of section 26 (this amendment), the members of the Executive Committee and the Provincial Chapter shall continue to occupy their respective office bearer position for the term appointed under the former Constitution, until its expiration.

Code of Ethics (Schedule A)

PAPUA NEW GUINEA AUSTRALIA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION CODE OF ETHICS

1.0 What is our Statement of Values?

- 1.1 The Papua New Guinea- Australia Alumni Association values the integrity of its members and recognises their commitment to the Mission, Objectives and Purposes defined in the Association's Constitution and restated below:

The mission of the Papua New Guinea Australia Alumni Association is to contribute to the growth and development of Papua New Guinea and to foster productive relationships between the two countries.

The objectives and purposes of the Association shall be:

- to support and promote the mission, interest and objectives of the Association
- to cultivate and strengthen Alumni engagement
- to provide a forum for active participation in the discussion of development and other significant issues affecting PNG
- to create an environment for the sharing and exchange of ideas, knowledge, information and resources amongst members
- to connect and reunite alumni within and across PNG and to build relationships with Australian education institutions
- to establish a database of alumni and maintain its currency through the active recruitment of alumni
- to provide an information base aimed at assisting newly graduated alumni
- to provide a forum to foster and promote networking through partnerships
- to do all such things as are incidental or conclusive to the attainment of the mission, objectives or purposes of the Association

1.2 As Alumni, we share a determination to uphold the trust placed in us by the Papua New Guinea and Australia Governments to serve the best interests of Papua New Guinea through our individual and cooperative activities as members of the Association.

2.0 Why do we have an Alumni Code of Ethics?

- 2.1 to define accepted/acceptable behaviours within our Association
- 2.2 to establish a clear framework for professional behaviour and responsibilities
- 2.3 to promote high standards of practice by executive and members of PNGAAA
- 2.4 to help promote our identity as a professional organisation

3.0 What is unethical behaviour?

3.1 In addition to bribery and misappropriation of funds, unethical behaviour also includes patronage, nepotism, favours to relatives, friends and political associates, leaking or misusing Association information, unauthorised political activities, abuse of position and power, and influence peddling, etc. – in fact any action which is undertaken by members at the expense of the Association and the people of Papua New Guinea.

3.2 This Code of Ethics:

- has been built upon values and principles enshrined in the Constitution of Papua New Guinea
- has the same force and effect as the Papua New Guinea Australia Alumni Association Constitution itself and a breach of the Code constitutes a disciplinary offence under the Association's Constitution
- is not exhaustive but does provide the framework for members and any employees of the Association to understand their responsibilities to the Association and to their colleagues

3.4 In summary, the Code of Ethics specifically prohibits:

- (a) obtaining (or trying to obtain) from any person (including another Alumni member or employee), any property, benefit or payment, or any favour, on account of any action done or not done in fulfilling his or her required duties or
- (b) giving (or promising to give) to any person any property, benefit, payment or favour on account of any action done or not done in fulfilling his or her required or official duties

4.0 What are the specific implications of the Code of Ethics?

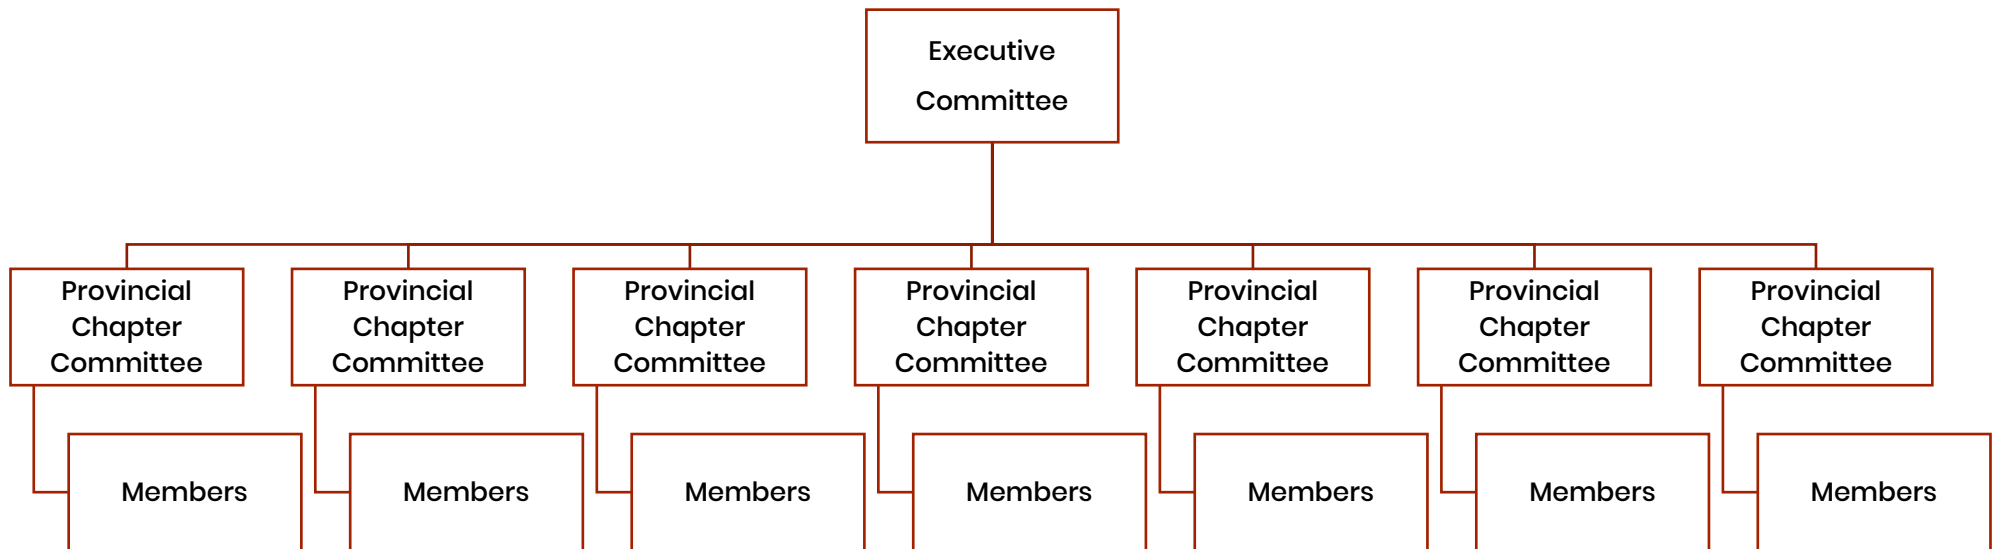

4.1 Each executive or member of the Papua New Guinea–Australia Alumni Association, and any employee of the Association, will:

- (a) promptly obey all lawful directions of the Association's President (when fulfilling his/her authorised obligations on behalf of the Executive Committee), within the terms of the Constitution
- (b) question any requests or directions which appear to be unlawful, and if in doubt, refer such requests to the Executive Committee
- (c) refuse to obey all requests which are contrary to the Constitution and/or are clearly unlawful and refer all such incidents to a meeting of the Executive Committee, if considered necessary
- (d) exercise discretionary powers provided by legislation justly and professionally, in such a way as to maximise advantage to the State
- (e) not participate in any other personal business which may interfere in his/her duties or create a conflict of interest
- (g) treat colleagues, members of the wider Alumni network and employees of the Association with respect for the positions they hold, as human beings and in accord to the Gender Equality, Disability and Social Inclusion (GEDSI) principles

4.2 In providing advice and services to clients, Executive Committee members, Provincial Chapter Committee members and sub-committee members and employees are required to:

- (a) be fair and impartial in interpreting the Constitution and any schedules
 - (b) declare to their colleagues any direct conflict of interest in dealing with a particular member or client, who may be a close relative or close associate
 - (c) refuse the offer of any kind of inducement or “reward”, including money, material, entertainment, sexual favours and other services, from a client or third party in return for providing a service or for ignoring or not implementing an Association decision
 - (d) refuse to be drawn into any kind of conspiracy with another member(s) to overlook regulations/lawful requirements in return for reciprocal favours, inducements or rewards described above
 - (e) be prompt, polite and helpful to Association members, but at the same time be firm in our commitment to an ethical Papua New Guinea- Australia Alumni Association environment and
 - (f) report to the President any member, Association client, or any other person who attempts bribery or corrupt practice as described above

1.0 LEGISLATION

- 1.1 The Papua New Guinea- Australia Alumni Association is entitled to conduct elections for office under the Associations Incorporation Act 1966.

2.0 THE ALUMNI CONSTITUTION

- 2.1 Prospective candidates need to know the requirements of the Association's Constitution in relation to elections and the roles of office-bearers. The relevant rules concerning the conduct of elections are those covered in Sections 3 and 4 of the Constitution.

3.0 ADVERTISING

- 3.1 Nominations are called for by placing a notice on the Association's website and by emailing those Association members who have registered an email address with the Secretary. The notice will specify the range of dates of the election process (usually three (3) weeks, concluding one hour after the start of the Annual General Meeting), the date of closure of nominations and the date when the Alumni Electoral Rolls will close (not less than 7 days prior to the start of the election period).

4.0 NOMINATIONS

- 4.1 Candidates should ensure that they are qualified to be nominated.
- 4.2 The Constitution requires candidates to be Regular Members of the Alumni Association. There are also clauses in the Constitution which relate to the inability, in some positions, for Alumni members to serve in the same position for more than one term of office.
- 4.3 Candidates seeking to nominate for a position, must be nominated by a regular member and seconded by a different regular member and submit their nomination by the due date. Candidates nominating for more than one position must complete separate forms for each position.
- 4.4 Nominations must be received in writing (in the format shown in Form 1), signed by the candidate and his or her nominator and seconder.
- 4.5 The Secretary (which for the duration of the election process also performs the Returning Officer (RO) function) will acknowledge receipt of all nominations and after the close of nominations checks them for compliance with the Alumni Association's Constitutions and the provisions of this document.
- 4.6 Where a nomination does not comply with the requirements of the rules, the Secretary will advise the candidate concerned by written notice of the particulars of the defect.

Depending on the nature of the defect, the candidate may be asked to take remedial action or provide further particulars of his or her qualifications for office.

- 4.7 The candidate must reply within seven (7) days. Where a candidate fails to remedy a defective nomination within the prescribed time the nomination is rejected.

5.0 UNCONTESTED ELECTIONS

- 5.1 If only sufficient valid nominations are received to fill advertised vacancies in all offices listed for election, nominees are declared elected immediately. Where some, but not all, positions do not require a ballot, declarations may be made in respect of these positions immediately.

6.0 BALLOT PREPARATION

- 6.1 Candidates' names are listed on the ballot paper (Form 2) in alphabetical order by family name.
- 6.2 The Secretary prepares the ballot paper, in both print and electronic form, specifying the following:
- 6.3.1 That voters are to mark one box only for each position, except in the case of Executive Committee Members, where voters are to mark five (5) boxes.
- 6.3.2 Information concerning the postal, fax, or in-person return of the completed ballot paper.
- 6.3.3 A statement relating to the importance of confidentiality.
- 6.3.4 The location on the Alumni website of further information concerning each candidate.
- 6.3.5 As well as any special directions which might need to be included about informal votes, or where necessary, completion of declaration statements.

7.0 ROLL OF VOTERS

- 7.1 The database of members of the Association, current as at seven (7) days prior to the start date of the election period is the official and only list of voters.
- 7.2 Only these members are entitled to participate in the election process.
- 7.3 By means of email, public notice and notice on the Alumni website, each of the above members will be advised that he or she can access a Ballot Paper: either (a) in person at the Alumni Office, (b) via email response, if requested, (c) via mail response, if requested, (d) via fax response, if requested and (e) from the Alumni website.

8.0 CANDIDATES' STATEMENTS

- 8.1 For all nominations for positions that comply with the Constitution and this Schedule, the candidate will be advised that he or she is entitled to prepare a statement of no more than 200 words, relating to his or her experience and suitability for the position, and can also include a photograph of themselves.
- 8.2 This suitability statement and photograph will be lodged on the Alumni website within seventy-two (72) hours of being received by the Secretary.

9.0 BALLOT

- 9.1 As noted above, accredited faxed, posted or personally submitted ballot papers will be accepted. On receipt of a ballot paper, the Returning Officer – RO (Secretary) will:
- (a) confirm that the ballot has been submitted by a member entitled to vote
 - (b) destroy all accompanying identifying marks or names forwarded with the ballot
 - (c) lodge the ballot paper in a secure place and
 - (d) mark on the official list of voters the name of the member who has voted
- 9.2 Any non-accredited ballot papers will be put aside for further consideration if necessary.

10.0 SCRUTINEERS

- 10.1 Candidates may appoint scrutineers to represent their interests by observing procedures associated with the conduct of the election. Scrutineers must be appointed in writing. A candidate in the ballot cannot be a scrutineer.
- 10.2 A scrutineer is permitted to be present at most stages of the election including:
- emailing, faxing or posting of blank ballot material
 - the lodgment of completed ballot papers once the voter has been confirmed as eligible to vote and after any identifying marks have been removed
 - marking a voter's name from the official roll and
 - during the physical counting of votes
- 10.3 A scrutineer must not:
- interrupt the process without valid reason
 - disclose any knowledge acquired by him/her concerning the votes of any particular voter or voters
 - touch any ballot paper

- act in a manner which will interfere with the proper conduct of the election

11.0 DECLARATION OF RESULTS

- 11.1 At the completion of the scrutiny, the RO will declare the results verbally at the relevant AGM and in writing; and issue copies of the results to the Association.
- 11.2 All ballot material will be kept for one year after the completion of the election.
